

FLEXUS SUB 200

12" WIRELESS SUBWOOFER

BIG BASS, SMALL FOOTPRINT

The Flexus 12" subwoofer packs a lot of punch per square inch thanks to careful Klipsch engineering. Enjoy powerful bass with plenty of depth and musicality – without latency.

POWERED BY ONKYO

We've teamed up with Onkyo, combining their decades of proven manufacturing and tech prowess with our classic Klipsch acoustics, to ensure your home entertainment system is as epic in audio quality as it is in reliability.

QUICK, CONVENIENT CONNECTION

Klipsch transport technology built into every Flexus product means your whole home entertainment ecosystem functions fast and efficiently. Setup is simple, latency is low and booming bass is only a cord away.

BETTER TOGETHER

Two subs are better than one. As your tastes and square footage grow, so do the demands you'll have for deep, powerful bass. By having two identical Flexus 12" Subwoofers, you'll smooth out the peaks and nulls typically experienced by a single subwoofer arrangement.
